Exhibits

LOCAL ARTISTS CELEBRATION SHOW is May 29 - July 3 at the Grinnell Arts Center.

EDWARD BURTYNSKY: WATER is open July 11-September 28 at Faulconer Gallery.

On Our Minds

- Plate Baker's new sign looks wonderful, as do the new signs at Gamers and Solera.
- Please go eat at Relish. It's not easy having road construction blocking you on all sides. Let's do a cash mob there, shall we?
- The Fix cinnamon rolls are out of this world.
- Make sure you buy your ducks and your golf balls-the GRMC Auxiliary's golf ball drop and the Galaxy's Duck Derby are both this weekend.
- Congrats to Grinnellian Paul Durr, the new owner of Prairie Canary.
- Still time to sign up for the one and only luxury RAGBRAI charter, hosted by Bikes to You.
- QPS is hosting a big job fair in Grinnell tomorrow. If you're looking for a job in the area, make sure you stop by.
- Don't feel like cooking? Swing on into Flowers By Dzyne and pick up a frozen meal from Memories Maid (and get some chocolates while you're at it).
- Pick up a copy of the Grinnell Business Journal (the newest version of The Hub).
- It's perfect weather to go to the pool! And it's "the place to pick up chicks" according to five teenage boys.
- The new sock wall at Sports Page is really cool.
- Malcom Lumber's new building looks amazing.
- What do you think about downtown valet parking? We think that sounds world famous.
- The new house on Reed St. being built by Griffith Homebuilders looks fantastic.
- Ridiculous Day sidewalk sales are a week from Saturday, July 19.
- Vintage Treasures on Main St. is filled with antiques and vintage finds. (formerly Main St. Consignment and Annabelle's Attic).
- Gamers is filled to the brim with video game and some cool and unique board games your family & friends would enjoy.
- Solera's food and wine is to die for. Definitely worth a visit.
- We are so lucky to have first-run movies at the Strand. Take the family to a movie, and definitely check out the free merchant movies they are hosting this month.

What has "wowed" you lately? Reply to this with your shout-outs about Grinnell businesses and we will compile them for a future blast. Let's spread the love and share some kind words about all the places you have had great experiences at lately.
